Title: Biblical Parenting Is Parenting with Grace

INTRODUCTION

1. Your _____ Is the Primary Vehicle for Training Your Children

Your children will learn more from your life than your lectures, especially if your lectures are not supported by your life.

2. _____ and _____ Define God's Parenting of Us

There is tremendous balance in God; He is loving and gracious, yet holy and just. He is at all times truth but full of mercy.

Discipline that is effective must arise out of love that is both real and revealed.

3. Teach Your Children to _____ God, You, and Others

Proper respect for God is at the heart of any right relationship with Him.

Three Keys to Proper Discipline

1. The Only Proper Motive Is Love
2. It Must Be Consistent
3. Distinguish between Immaturity and Rebellion

4. Treat Your Children as the _____ They Are

Your children belong to God. They are created by God for a very special purpose.
